DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 5-14 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim should refer to other claims in the alternative only and cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1, 16 & 17 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Dormegnien et al (6,691,002).
4. In regards to claims 1, 16 & 17, Dormegnien et al teaches determining an effort transmitted between the wheel (5) of a vehicle and a wheel support (11, i.e. longitudinal arm) consisting of mounting the said wheel (5) pivotably on a wheel support (11), the wheel (5) being provided with a tyre (2); pressing the said tyre (5) against an excitation means (3, i.e. roller track) (Column 6, lines 31-52; See Figures 1 & 2); measuring a fixed support effort (i.e. forces acting in three perpendicular directions) which is transmitted between the said wheel (5) and the said wheel support (11) when the said tyre (2) is excited with the said excitation means (3), the said wheel support (11) being fixed in at least one direction (X,Y,Z) in relation to the said excitation means (3), characterised by the step consisting in calculating, on the basis of the said fixed support effort, a suspended support effort (i.e. forces acting in three perpendicular directions) which would be transmitted between the said wheel (5) and a wheel support (7, i.e. shock absorber) having a degree of freedom of suspension in at least one said direction in relation to the said excitation means (3) (Column 7, lines 8-65).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 2-4 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art does not disclose or suggest the determining an effort transmitted between the wheel of a vehicle and wheel support consisting of the suspended support effort being calculated on the basis of the non-suspended mass of a ground contact system which includes the tyre-wheel assembly and a wheel support which is connected to a suspension device.
